

I am six-years old. it's just MOM and ME. she works hard.
She just got a new job, I love my MOM, in SUMMER I go to the Parkway Center. I did not ever have a jacket and I did not have any socks. For a long time the strap on my back pack was broken but that was OK. one day the people at the Parkway Center took me into the office. they gave me some shirts and some pants. They gave me brand new white socks and a new backpack and a coat! I was very happy. I put on my new white socks and I did not want to stand up in them because I did not want to get them dirty.
